BOXERS WERE PUT TO ROUT FIRST GRAND JURY

Brave Battle of Small Band of Belgian Engineers.

Thirty-two Men Fought Their Way Through Thousand or More of Chinese Rabble -Troops No Protection.

The Shanghai Mercury gives the following account of the escape of the Belgian engineers from Paotingfu: "On Sunday, 27th May, four of us were in the train due at Liuliro at 4 p.m. In the neighborhood of Chochow our train stopped. The station master told us the Boxers had destroyed the bridges and the track. We immediing presentments of public abuses, etc. ately backed the train to Kaopeltien where we found 1900 soldiers under the command of a general, who refused to encounter the Boxers, protesting that he had no orders from his chief on the subject. The train then started for

The following day, 28th, we, seven engineers and myself, left Paotingfu on a special train at 4 a. m. with materials for repairing the track. On our arrival at Kaopeitien, bands of villagers incited by Boxers rifled the train and station, leaving nothing but the bare walls. The commander and soldiers supposed to be guarding the place, stood by and saw these acts. On leaving Kaopeitien the track presented a lamentable aspect. The sleepers were burned, the rails torn up and thrown on one side. We had to repair the line for about 12 kilometers, and we did not reach Paotingfu till midnight. The next day we all left Paotingfu, under escort, 32 men, 6 women and one little girl of three years.

About 12 o'clock we secured twelve sampans, one occupied by the Mandarin Sun, and another by the interpreter Tsing. The former left us the next day about 4 p. m. Orders were given by him to shut in the sampans entirely. On Tuesday at 5 a. m. the Boxers who had been waiting for us to the hills, opened fire on the boats, seven of our party being wounded by the volley. The soldiers escorting us thereupon decamped, and as soon as they were gone the boatmen dropped anchor and refused to go on.

We then went on shore and faced the Boxers, and fell back on the plains where we gave them battle, and suceeded in putting them to flight after killing several. We then discovered that four of our party were missing. We reached another river but were followed by the mob. Two of us swam out and secured a boat in which we got the whole party over to the other bank. Before long we discovered another mob on our track, and had to fight some fifty Boxers. About midday we again reached the river. The women were exhausted, the men for the most part demoralized. We had had nothing to eat or drink since we left the evening before. To proceed on foot was impossible.

Though the river was deep and wide and we were much exhausted, two of us swam out again and detached a boat from a bend in the river. We remained in this till 8 in the evening, the strong est of our party going along the bank as an escort. Then we found ourselves BOARDING AND LIVERY between two fires. Behind us came a small mob, while men armed with guns awaited us on either bank. We had to fight again, and though we had killed several we had to retreat once more to the plains, where we succeded in keepenemy retreated. We stayed thereabouts all night, and started out again the next morning to try and reach Tien Tsin. Early on Wednesday morning we were three times in contact with the Boxers and each time we killed or wounded many. About midday on nearing a big village, we were obliged to wage a regular battle again, the Boxers numbering more than a thousand and led by a mounted leader who was protected by four gingals. We thought our last hour had come and bid farewell to each other, but the younger men determined to make one more effort. A desperate charge on our part made them abandon their gingals and the mob then fled followed by our shots. Great courage was shown by several members of our party. We then resumed our tramp to Tien Tsin still some 200 li away. At about 4 p. m. we had repulsed the Boxers several times, but they kept reforming. Each time we killed several of the mob which had the effect of driving them away. In the evening we camped in a marsh after having cross ed a small river, and resumed our journey about 3 a. m. We cut the lines of the enemy about 4 a. m. and surprised an advance post whose object was to stop our progress. But we routed this detachment and this was the last en-

Walluku, July 14.-Attorney J. M. Kaneakua returned yesterday from Hana and Kipahulu districts and intends to remain here until the coming November elections as he aspires to legislative honors.

As his ancestors were of East Mani stock, he claims to be a Maulan, even more so than some who claim to be kamaainas by priority of residence.

William Jennings Bryan is fond of ooks, and has a good sized general library, but he cares little for art, and rarely visits a picture gallery.

Judge Humphrews on Saturday issued the order for the first grand jury ever summoned in Hawaii. The grand jury does not try cases in open court It examines the information laid before it by the Attorney General, including commitments from district magistrates, and decides whether each criminal case submitted to it shall go to trial by the petty jury. Its endorsement on the indictments of "True bill" or "No bill" settles that question. Under the Hawalian procedure the trial judge performed this function. The grand jury has other duties, pertaining to the public welfare, to perform under a system of municipal government, such as arraigning municipal officials for malfeasance in office, mak-

The order of Judge Humphreys reads as follows: "In the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawail. August Term, A. D. 1900.
